

Terms and Conditions of Participation ‘Recommend a friend’

- The contest is open for everyone.
- To recommend another person, you must include the following: name, telephone number, email address, Facebook account.
- A person can only be recommended once by another client.
- In case the recommended person doesn't place an order with us, the recommendation will automatically cancel after 7 days. (In which case, the person can be recommended once again.)
- In case the recommended person is already one of our clients, the recommendation will be cancelled.
- Each recommended person gets you 100 points.
- The points are not transferable and are offered after the recommended person finalizes an order.
- The prize value varies depending on the number of points accumulated after the recommendations. (Each product on our website values a certain amount of points.)
- There are no other awards besides those available on our website.

How to enter the contest

- Create an account on www.thewritersengland.co.uk
- Fill in the recommendation form on my account, complete with the details of the person I want to recommend.
- After sending the form, the status of the recommended person will be displayed on my account.
- If the recommended person finalized an order, I will receive the corresponding points into my account, which I can use to earn prizes.

How to order my prizes

- From the available list of prizes, I select one that's equivalent to the number of points I have.
- From my account, I send the request with the desired prize over to The Writers team.
- An operator will contact me with the delivery details.
